HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
His friends will refer to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by E. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
We take pleasure in recommending it to the public, and believe it will be found to answer all that is claimed for it.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 17.

Omaha Dispatch—Republican Triumph in Colorado.

COLORADO, Sept. 17.—A dispatch says E. M. Cooper, recently appointed Superintendent of the Pacific Express, left for the west yesterday to organize a new express company, which will commence operation October 1st, superseding Wells, Fargo & Co.

A telegram from Colorado shows sufficient returns received to secure a Republican majority in the Legislature.

A desperado named "Wild" Bill, who has been biographied in Harper's, while being conveyed to jail in Colorado City, for a murderous assault on election day, was shot and instantly killed by an unknown person concealed in the woods.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Judges' Linseed Oil Works, on Grand street, were burned last night; loss, $150,000.

A special says that great deficiency has been found to exist between the returns of merchants in districts where they reside and where they do business. Some report a business amounting to a hundred thousand dollars, but at the places where they reside, they report only three or four thousand dollars income. The matter will be thoroughly investigated.

Crimes and Casualties.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 17.—Waddy Thompson was arrested, in company with Perry Fuller, for alleged revenue frauds, and sent to New Orleans under charge of the United States Marshal. He was taken from the Marshal at Jackson, Tenn., and was yesterday, on a writ of habeas corpus, brought before Judge Lee, of this city, and discharged, on the ground that the United States Commissioner only had the power of a magistrate to bail or commit, but could not order a prisoner carried into another State. Thompson was immediately re-arrested by the United States Marshal, on a warrant issued by Commissioner Morrison, of Memphis, on the same charge and afterwards released on bail to answer to-day.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—The shingle and box factory of Page & Kilbourn was burned this morning; loss $30,000.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 17.—A terrific thunder storm passed over this city last night. Several houses were struck by lightning.

The freight depot of the Pittsburg railroad, in this city, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. The building was unusually clear of freight—two propellers having loaded from it yesterday. The loss is not ascertained.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A large portion of the woolen mills at Ripton, Ulster county, was burned; loss heavy; partially insured. One hundred and fifty persons are thrown out of employment.

A squad of United States Cavalry, with horses and equipments, left Alexandria yesterday for Lynchburg, to insist in the enforcement of the internal revenue laws.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—Libby & Pennibacker's flour mill and Col. Thomas' armory were burned to-day. Loss, $50,000. Other buildings in the vicinity were badly damaged. Loss, $50,000.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 17.—A serious collision occurred on the Central railroad this evening, near Lyons. A passenger train ran into the rear end of a stock train, owing to the carelessness of the switchman. The engine was destroyed and every passenger car was disabled. Several persons were injured.

National Capital Convention.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—At a meeting of the National Capital Executive Committee, yesterday, it was decided to issue a call for a Convention to be held October 20th. The call, after stating that the Governors of all the States are invited to attend, says, in case the Governors of any of the States refuse to appoint delegates, the appointees of Congressmen from any district will be received as duly accredited and admissable to seats in the Convention.

Patent Case Decided.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The injunction case of Mason vs. Romley, relating to the manufacture of screw caps for fruit jars, Judge Fisher of the Supreme Court, awarded the patent to Romley, holding that if Mason invented the article his delay of eleven years in applying for a patent works a forfeiture of rights.

Political—Democratic Organization Abandoned.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—The Democratic Convention to-day nominated a ticket half Republican and half Democratic.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The Democratic County and Central Committee, after a lengthy session and consultation with prominent Democrats, last evening unanimously decided not to call a convention this fall, but to unite with the people's organization in defeating the ticket nominated by the so-called regular Republican Convention.

Political Hoax in Virginia.

RICHMOND, Sept. 17.—A special says a plot has been set on foot, it is charged, by Radical officeholders, on the question of admitting the State government without the action of Congress, until the session commencing on the 15th. It is proposed to get up evidence of outrages and frauds by the Walker party, and by fillibustering Congress and references to the Reconstruction Committee to have the whole question adjourned. By this means the present office-holders will be permitted to serve at least twelve months. The originators of the scheme are said to receive strong support from Butler and Boutwell.

Woman's Suffrage Convention.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—The Woman's Convention adopted a constitution, and elected officers to the State Association, President, Mrs. Tracy Cutler; Vice President, Mrs. Langly; Recording Secretary, Mrs. H. Donney; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. N. Cole.

Their resolutions quote the Declaration of Independence about the Government deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed; that taxation without representation is tyranny, and declares that suffrage under our system of government is an inalienable right of every human being capable of a rational choice; that the denial of franchise to women is contrary to the genius of our institutions; that women have interests as wives, mothers and widows, which interests should be directly represented in the Government; that women, as a class, have peculiar mental and moral characteristics, and their votes therefore would be favorable to peace, purity, temperance, economy, religion, benevolence and public order. They invoke the co-operation of everybody, irrespective of party, creed, color or nationality, in securing amendments to State and Federal Constitutions, conferring suffrage on women. They declare that the ballot means bread for the working women. They sympathize with the working classes of the country in their struggle against the encroachments of capital, and demand the suffrage for the daughters of toil as the only means of obtaining equal pay for equal work. They recommend the friends of woman suffrage to organize in every township and ward, to create and concentrate political sentiment in favor of woman suffrage.

The Cuban Question.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—It is stated in the Herald's special that Admiral Hoff had an interview with Secretary Robeson and Admiral Porter yesterday, on Cuban affairs. It is claimed that the Admiral's sympathy has always been with the Cubans, but his instructions required him to remain strictly neutral, and it would have been obviously unseemly to indulge in any demonstration favorable to the insurgents. He thinks the struggle will be protracted unless some outside interference takes place.

The Alabama Claim.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Specials say in regard to the present condition of the Alabama claim, there is good authority to state that parties well informed in England in official circles, have communicated the character of the terms to which it is believed that the English Cabinet would now agree, and that our Government could not consider them for a moment. It is also stated that when Motley arrived in London, he gave the English Government to understand that when the United States Government is ready to take further steps in the matter of settlement, an intimation of such decision will be sent from Washington.

Miscellaneous.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 17.—Governor Geary has appointed a full set of delegates to the commercial convention at Louisville, October 12th.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Ex-Governor Church is decidedly improved, but is not out of danger.

LONDON, C. W., Sept. 17.—The Canada Chemical Works were burned last night; loss, $30,000; no insurance.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—James Apple, whose distillery was closed by officer Brooks, was arrested to-day and committed without bail, charged with being implicated in shooting Brooks.

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—James Armstrong shot his mother-in-law dead at North Bridgewater, last evening. The shot was intended for his father-in-law. He also wounded James Welsh, a neighbor. The murderer fled.

TORONTO, Sept. 17.—A fire to-day destroyed three frame houses in Queen street. Two children perished in the flames. One fireman was killed and another fatally injured by a falling chimney; a third child was saved by throwing it out of the window.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—The President of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Society has invited Prince Arthur and suite, with the Governor General and members of the Ministry of the Dominion, to attend the State Fair on October 5th.

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—The case of Saunders, defaulting teller of the North National Bank, was up before Commissioner Hallett to-day. The testimony of officers of the bank and others was taken, from which it appears that the amount of the defalcation was $132,000, and the loss to the bank is $96,000, after deducting Saunders' bonds and the amount received by brokers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The amount of available coin in the United States Treasury is $138,106,343 40, including $2,130,050 40 of gold certificates outstanding on the 14th inst. The coin with the exception of about $4,000,000 is at the Sub-Treasury at New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Workingman's Union held an important meeting to-night. They resolved to form a new political party to act in concert with the German Trades Union organization this fall. They also resolved to request Gov. Hoffman to enforce the eight hour law.

RICHMOND, Sept. 17.—The Conservative State Central Committee have adopted resolutions advising against the election of United States Senator at the meeting of the Legislature, Oct. 5th.

Stockton Tax Item.

STOCKTON, Sept. 16.—The tax in this city this year is $3 on each $100 of taxable property.

The Steam Navigation Company reduced through passage rates to San Francisco to-day: Cabin passage, $2; deck passage, $1 50.

Wheat shipments to-day 780 tons.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The morning Standard to-day has an editorial on the news concerning the recent discovery of the remains of the Sir John Franklin expedition in the Arctic seas. The data on which to accept the document as genuine, are too slender, unless the fact is corroborated, in a manner difficult to anticipate. We fancy the skeptics' suspicion is not misplaced.

Advices are received of the total wreck of the Indian mail steamer Carnot, off the island of Shadum, in the Red Sea. All the passengers and crew succeeded in reaching the shore, but the mails and cargo were lost. The steamer had a large amount of specie for this city.

MADRID, Sept. 17.—It is thought that the Cabinet at Washington has become somewhat more conciliatory since the receipt of a telegram from Sickles, that the over-excited temper of the Spanish people will compel the Government to continue the war for the suppression of the insurrection in Cuba.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A Herald's special from Constantinople says the Grand Vizier has dispatched a second official letter in the name of the Sultan, to the Viceroy of Egypt, in which he expresses satisfaction at the receipt of proofs of fidelity on the part of his Highness, and also pleasure at his compliance with, and strict adherence to, the conditions of the recent Firman. He, however, specially insists that the Viceroy shall, in the future, observe strictly the following points: The Royal Mission that the Egyptian army shall be reduced to 30,000; that needle guns shall only be ordered in Europe or elsewhere, and all arms beyond that number, as well as any iron clad vessels of war, which may have been bargained for, or are now in course of construction, shall be contermanded. That the public taxes of the territory shall be levied and collected in the name of the Sultan only, that the annual budget of finances shall be submitted regularly to the Sultan for his authority previous to its promulgation. That his approval shall be asked in all cases to contract foreign loans. That the Viceroy shall not hold direct or official intercourse or communication with foreign Governments, and shall afford, through his officers, better treatment to Mussulman pilgrims journeying to the Holy Shrine. The Grand Vizier adds in conclusion: "In compliance with these terms and understandings as to the faithful execution and observance of them, the Sultan will be very glad to see the Viceroy in Constantinople."

A Difficult Definition

The Corvallis Gazette and Eugene Journal have had a bit of discussion lately about a political temperance party The annexed paragraph is from the Gazette

The editor of the Eugene Journal says that he is in "favor of nominating none but sober honest and capable men for every office from Governor and Congressman down to constable That sounds pretty well The only point we would raise in reference to that platform would be to inquire what constitutes a sober man in the opinion of the editor?

This is a hard question and we are curious to see how the Journal will answer it Though the editor of that paper will doubt less succeed very well in giving his opinion on the subject, yet authorities differ so much in relation to it that we fear he will find it extremely difficult to furnish a definition that will satisfy the Gazette Whether Timothy who was advised by Paul to "drink no longer water but to take wine for his stomach s sake and often infirmities," would be considered an intemperate man by the friends of modern prohibitory legislation and therefore unfit to go to the Legislature, we do not know, but we think the probability is that Timothy in these times would be ruled out. It is pretty clear too, that such a miracle as the conversion of water into wine at the wedding feast could not take place in these times without greatly scandalizing many goodish people, and giving rise to very many grave fears lest the introduction of the wine cup on such an occasion would prove the first down ward step in the career of more than one member of the hopeful and happy company there assembled

There is such a wide variance of opinion as to what constitutes temperance that we fear man kind will never agree upon any fixed definition In Iago s opinion good wine is a good familiar creature if it be well used Iago, however, was a great villain,—though his precept does not appear to differ much from Paul's advise to Timothy At Osbaldistone Hall, as we read in Rob Roy the idea of temperance was rather low, though it is often paralleled in these times We read that old Sir Hildebrand on one occasion lectured his son and his nephew on their milk sop habits, as he termed them and seriously advised the young gentlemen to "gradually inure their brains to bear a gentleman-like quantity of liquor, without brawls or breaking of heads He recommended that they should "begin pudding with a regular quart of claret per day, which with the aid of March beer and brandy, was quite enough for a beginner" And for their encouragement he assured them that he "had known many a man who had lived to their years without having drunk a pint at a sitting, who yet by falling into honest company and following hearty example, had been numbered among the best good fellows of their time, and could carry off their six bottles under their belt quietly and comfortably, without brawling or babbling, and be neither sick nor sorry the next morning" Now as this, in some quarters, would be deemed remarkably temperate conduct, and as anything short of teetotalism would pass for temperance in other quarters, the difficulty of answering the question "What constitutes a sober man?" will be very apparent.

Mr Andrew Fairservice, who was a rigid Presbyterian and who disclaimed to be a man of a no-bodily correct habits, resented the imputation that he had been to the alehouse on a Sunday, with—"Na sir, I never gang to the ale-house—that is, unless any neighbor was to give a pint or the like o that, but to gang there an one's ain coat-tail, is a waste o precious time and hard-won siller" Mr Andrew therefore bore the reputation of a sober man, and was very proud of it

We make these remarks and cite these authorities simply to indicate some of the difficulties of answering the Gazette s question How the Journal will get on with it we can not guess, but we will say that it would have been nothing more than fair for the Gazette to have first furnished its definition of the term

More Light from Oregon City

The Democratic press of Oregon is legitimately entitled to the appellation of the assinine press of the country. Not one of their number ever takes a position on any subject of political history or national law which it can maintain Many of them never try anything of the kind, but content themselves with bawling in a general way without saying anything,—following the example of Bottom the Weaver, who had brains enough to do the part of the lion in the play, because it was nothing but roaring Those which do part from this safe line of policy always involve themselves in a labyrinth of contradictions, and end with convincing their readers that they are utterly ignorant of what they have been talking about This is the course of the Oregon City Enterprise in respect to the Chinese treaty and the rights which Chinese will have in this country under it Not long ago we stated that there is a clause in the treaty which declares that nothing contained in that instrument shall be held to confer naturalization on the subjects of China in the United States The Enterprise vehemently denied this statement, said it was false and that we knew it We then produced proof of the fact asserted, and now the Enterprise responds

Well, what of that? Our treaties with France England Germany and other nations do not naturalise and confer citizenship upon the citizens or subjects of those countries Naturalization is not effected in this country by means of treaties but by the proper courts, acting under and by the authority of the laws of the United States and we are not aware that any person has claimed that the late Chinese treaty would confer any such right upon Chinamen visiting or residing in this country

Now let us quote this very wise editor against himself He is 'not aware that any person has claimed that the (pending) treaty would confer any such right (naturalization) upon Chinamen residing in this country We will refresh the memory of this writer In the Enterprise of September 4th after quoting article five of the treaty he said

This is all there is in the treaty on this subject Does this forbid the naturalization of Chinamen What does the right to change the person s allegiance mean? It assuredly means the right to renounce allegiance to one government and become naturalized and become a citizen of another and as such entitled to the same rights as natural born citizens of his adopted country and government. This right is recognized in the Republican addition to the China treaty, which if carried out in good faith means this The Chinese may become naturalized and become American citizens, and American laws may become naturalized and become Chinese subjects

Thus it will be seen that this most learned editor, only two weeks ago argued that the treaty would confer this right of naturalization Now he knows of no person who has ever argued anything of the kind'

Again, in his issue of Saturday, after having distinctly stated that "naturalization is not effected in this country by means of treaties but by the proper courts acting under the laws of Congress he renews his objections to the treaty with China on the ground that it does not specifically forbid them this right but gives them the same privileges of naturalization which are enjoyed by subjects of the most favored nations, and then as if to signalize his ignorance and make his contradictions complete he immediately quotes from the naturalization laws which which show that none but white persons can be naturalized' Thus at every step he confuses himself, though evidently all the time supposing that he is building lofty arguments And this is the champion over whose secession to their party Democrats make so great a noise We don't wonder that a person of so profound a mind has quit the Republican party and joined that wing of the Democracy who think it necessary to labor with might and main to keep above the level of Chinamen The only wonder is that he didn t quit the Republicans long before

Quite a Contrast

The Democratic organ of this city that is the bigger one—goes off in its jerky and incoherent style in condemnation of Attorney General Hoar's opinion on the Virginia test oath question. This organ always uses its biggest and most sulphurous adjectives no matter what the occasion may be and it there fore says that the Attorney General in the case under consideration, 'has placed his name on the imperishable rolls of infamy with the other signers of false records and publishers of lies in the interest of the Infernal Union League'

Now it curious to observe that the Democratic press of Virginia look at this matter very differently They are all greatly pleased with the Attorney General s opinion The Richmond Dispatch speaks of it with perfect satisfaction, and remarks that the present administration has never forfeited any of its pledges to Virginia The Richmond Enquirer and Examiner thanks the administration for protecting Virginia against "what would have been one of the most infamous outrages ever practiced on a helpless people' It trusts and believes that the effects of Mr Hoar s decision will be at once visible in the renewed energy and hopefulness with which all branches of industry will be inspired The Petersburg Express rejoices that the 'inhibitions' which has been "suffocating the people of Virginia since July has been 'lifted and dispelled. And it sees, in the distance, the reconstruction of Virginia s material and industrious interests—"even under the embarrassments which oppress her The Petersburg Index says the Attorney General s decision places the future destiny of Virginia in the hands of its own citizens The spirit in which they accepted reconstruction having been reciprocated by the Government, it calls upon them to remember their pledges, and to let the world see that Virginia, with all her losses, has preserved intact the scrupulous honor which fears duty's path for duty's sake.

Thus we see the difference between the spirit of the Southern Democracy and of Northern Copperheadism The Southern Democracy have had enough of war and of blind obstinate, foolish resistance to the inevitable, but Northern Copperheadism, which was too cowardly to take any of the chances of war, and which is top pig headed to learn anything from its results, still keeps up its ridiculous and malignant rodomontade, threatening to reverse questions forever settled, and declaring vengeance against a large majority of the people of the country,

In General.

Republican papers and speakers in Ohio are using General Rosecrans' letter for campaign purposes They take texts from it and proceed to show how much Pendletonian Democracy comes short of the standard of honesty and patriotism established by such Democrats as General Rosecrans

The Des Moines (Iowa) Register says there has been a wonderful deal of blowing in England and America because the Oxfords beat the Harvards by "three lengths of a dug out This language is calculated to make the achievement look rather small and contemptible We are satisfied now that it don't amount to much after all

The Sacramento Union says the economic condition of California is like the political condition of France under the Bourbons—there is "a rush of blood to the head—a lack of general circulation Capital like everything else for sale, wants customers and can make more out of the many at low rates than out of the few at high rates

We call upon the Democracy of Santiam Forks to take instant measures to rebuke the Herald of this city for employing China labor Let them call a meeting, pass resolutions of censure, and stop the copy of the Herald that goes to the "Forks 'to be read weekly to the crowd that assembles at Bascom s The Herald is heretical It condemns Chinese labor violently enough, but then Chinese labor is employed in publishing the paper To the nice olfactories of the Democracy we know the paper must smell most offensively of the "opium-soaked heathen from the slave marts of Asia. Where is the white man s association" of Oregon City? And why slumbers its thunder? Will not the Democracy arise in their indignation and chastise their recreant organ into some sort of decent observance of the doctrines it preaches?

The Oregon City paper reviews Senator Williams's letter on the Chinese treaty And such a bundle of irrelevant and inconsequential arguments as it furnishes surely never was seen. Let us bring that paper, if possible to a consideration of plain facts It lays great stress on the provision of the pending treaty which stipulates that Chinese shall have in this country the same privileges, immunities and exemptions in respect to travel and residence which may be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nations Now we want to ask the Oregon City paper if the Chinese do not already possess these privileges and if they have not possessed them for many years? And further we ask it to state what additional right the pending treaty will give the Chinese in this country which they did not have before the right to enter the two schools controlled by the Government alone excepted? For years Chinese have lived in this country on the same footing with the subjects of the most favored nation only it the opposition press denounce the pending treaty solely because it asserts, in terms a state of things which has long actually existed' The Oregon City paper has been forced to admit that there is nothing in the treaty which confers citizenship on the Chinese Now when it admits the other fact that the treaty will not alter the status of the Chinese here in any respect, it will correct its former ridiculous blunders and show how little reason it has had for opposing and denouncing the treaty

THE WEST

The following is an account of what engineers in the Gulf of Georgia Three bombs were put into the whale He made one circle and went down On its coming up he rose immediately under the bow of our boat and put his head exactly up on it and took it under a considerable distance On its coming to the surface of the water it was bottom upwards All hands, of course swam for their lives On recovering themselves they secured everything and swam to the boat which had risen bottom up The second boat was still fast to the whale they secured my line, which was turned out of the tub 150 fathoms By the time they got all my line in their boat and up to the whale it was dead

A curious marriage occurred last week in St Louis A stone-blind bridegroom was led by his blushing bride to the altar of a Justice of the Peace The honest and benevolent functionary felt it to be his duty to inform the poor blind man that the chosen of his heart was really one of the ugliest women in the world and that she had already to his certain knowledge buried two husbands To this the bridegroom responded that he had seen the lady a great many years ago and that according to the best of his recollection she was then 'a thing of beauty" and "a form of life and light" As the unfortunate man insisted upon being married to this dream of his earlier and happier days the knot was tied but the Justice swore that he could not in conscience take a fee for doing it, and so the poor victim was led away rejoicing

Western papers tell of the tragic end of a Cincinnati desperado named Watson, better known as "The Knife," from his habit of drawing a knife upon persons who offended him Ten years ago he murdered a policeman named Webb and since that time a son of the murdered man has been on Watson's trail At Fort Benton a few weeks since he met this Watson in a gambling saloon, recognized him, threw a glass of whisky into his face and then very coolly shot him six times with a revolver letting his life out through at least three mortal wounds He then walked out of the saloon and hasn't been seen since A large number of Chicago thieves attended the funeral of a member of their fraternity last Tuesday Over his grave but few words were spoken There were no religious ceremonies, but his body was quietly lowered into the earth one night amid only the weeping of a woman and the few casual and indifferent remarks from the dozen spectators Some of these New York thieves have arrived at St Louis At noon last Thursday the teller of a German savings bank had turned his back to his desk and gone a few steps, when the stamp adroitly jumped on it, and reaching out his hand to some packages of greenbacks, grasped two of them. It was but the work of an instant, and the act was seen by one or two clerks The thief dashed out of the office and escaped The packages he got off with contained $550 in greenbacks and currency nearly all in five, ten and twenty dollar notes

The Corinne Reporter announces the death of Apostle Benson, of the Mormon church, thusly

We are informed that Apostle Ezra T Benson who dropped so suddenly in Ogden last Friday had only thirteen wives—that's all—just a baker s dozen Of course he could not keep the number of children, for they have not been counted for several years Here is a subject worthy the solemn contemplation of Mormon expounders everywhere Thirteen wailing widows and a slather of sorry children lamenting the inscrutable ways of Providence What will become of them? Well, the Mormons have a way of getting along with that for their social life is something on the barn yard style of matrimony Like the poultry on the farm, when the old chanticleer dies all the other roosters crow the louder, and business goes on So with Mormonism, when a polygamist dies, the other chanticleers of this moral barnyard absorb his wives by marrying them into their own households, (absurb is a neat word in the place) Then, too a Mormon s glory both here and in the hereafter, shines forth brilliantly in proportion to the number of his concubines and children The Apostle Benson, then will for his thirteen wives and scores of children go high up into tall grass pastures, and shine with a dazzling glory, while his disconsolate relics and slather of children will be distributed around like country schoolmarms But again comes in the barnyard smile Mormons believe in industry and make every old hen scratch dirt for herself Verily great is King Brigham. Vide in Mormon barnyard matrimony

Stopping the Interest

(From the San Francisco Chronicle)

Secretary Boutwell's policy in selling gold and purchasing bonds seems to have had a very happy effect upon the national credit And yet it is both curious and unpleasant to note that the very people and presses that have been most earnest in dwelling upon the pressure of the national burdens and the hopelessness of our ever being able to pay the debt manifest no pleasure to witness the rapidity and steadiness with which that debt is melting away If Secretary Boutwell shall succeed in what he has announced as his intention ten millions of five-twenty bonds will be bought in before the end of the present month inasmuch as he purchased that amount in August we may reasonably believe that his promise for September will be fulfilled in which case a million of dollars of gold interest will be stopped It is but natural that these things should increase our credit both at home and abroad but it seems at first blush somewhat unnatural that any class of Americans should feel mortified and disgusted at the prospect of the payment of the national obligations Such a class however does exist There seems to be a very considerable number of American patriots who would like to see the nation bankrupt and who feel miserable at every fresh evidence that the debt incurred in suppressing the rebellion is certain to be paid

FROM ASTORIA —A correspondent at Astoria sends the following to the Herald of Saturday

Capt S. B. Abbott, Chief Engineer of the works at Cementville is rapidly recovering from his ill to severe illness A few weeks ago while in the exercise of his duties, he met with an accident whereby the first joint of the large toe of his right foot had to be amputated This delicate operation to performed himself with a common pocket knife which was outrageously dull In the course of a week mortification on set in, accompanied by other dangerous symptoms He then came to Astoria and placed himself under the care of Dr Dubbar who checked the disease and restored him to his present state of health Captain Abbott is too brave a man to die—yet.

The bark Whistler, Simpson master arrived at Astoria Tuesday evening September 14th where she awaits the steamer to be towed across the river to Cementville as that place she will discharge 150 tons of freight consisting of machinery, boilers etc for the Columbia River Manufacturing Company The balance of her cargo is for Portland

The work of filling the foundation for the new custom house at Astoria is progressing rapidly Already over one hundred piles have been driven About 500 more will have to go into their new house before the mason work can begin on their work The foundation when completed will be of a most permanent and solid character Capt Floyd is doing the work

The steamer Oreilamme arrived at Astoria from Portland on Friday morning at 7 o clock She took on board 225 casks, 111 half barrels of salmon and a small lot of leather, manufactured by Dell Weber & Co of Astoria The Oreilamme crossed the bar at half past nine o clock A M.

The bark Whistler Simpson master will be towed across the river to Cementville on Saturday by the propeller U S Grant

MR. MOSES WIRT a young gentleman who was raised in this vicinity and who has been spending two years in California, returned to this place a few weeks ago He delivered his maiden speech in Astoria on Thursday evening, to a respectable audience at Spiritual Hall His subject was 'The National Crisis' He was frequently applauded during the delivery of his address This performance in this place has recently been made a postal money order office

The son of Mr Thos. Logan who recently had three fingers chopped off with an axe is rapidly recovering from the effects of the wound

SUPREME COURT PROCEEDINGS —The following are the proceedings in the Supreme Court on Saturday as reported by the Unionist

The Court laid down the following

RULE 32 No motions will be heard until the cases in which they are filed are reached in the order of Districts, unless by consent of counsel

RULE 33 The argument upon a motion for any other purpose than the perfection of transcripts or dismissals of appeal, for causes apparent on the transcript, will not be heard until the case is called to which the motion is filed

RULINGS

Henry Failing, respondent, vs A M. Osborn appellant.

Testimony was taken up to-day and the evidence read by the attorneys.

FROM CANYON CITY —A correspondent of the Mountaineer, writing from Canyon City, Sept 9 says In the mines but little is doing on account of water Canyon creek is the only stream that has held out, and to it water has been limited, more than any previous season; yet the prospects for a good run this fall is very flattering There is some prospects of the construction of a bed rock flume in Canyon Creek, which, when completed will give employment to many valuable claims, and furnish employment for hundreds of men The quartz mill at Marysville is pounding away with good results The mill on Bull Run will start next week from whence we look for good returns Our farmers have got their crops harvested, and are now threshing They find a ready market for all they have, which is quite encouraging There has been quite an addition to our population this fall and it is still coming A new road is in progress from this place to Prairie City Several teams have already come through on it and pronounce it quite passable, and all join in saying that with but little expense it can be made the finest road in the State.

THE SCHOOLS —The Times says 'A boy's school education is something needed Parents are sending their boys away to obtain a preliminary education—and which it could be obtained here just as well, provided they had the teachers, etc' That we have not good and well paid good schools, is not the reason why parents send their boys away to outside preliminary education We have good teachers and good schools—as good as they have anywhere on the Pacific coast As proof of this we need only mention that while a few Oregon boys are sent out of the State to school, a few California boys, Idaho boys and Washington boys, etc., every year are sent into Oregon to school Every parent, of course, is at liberty to send his boys where he likes Those who send their boys away, generally have a sufficient reason for doing so. Their reasons may be one thing or another—but the Oregonian does not believe that any publicity has any business to send their boys out of the State because the schools at home are inferior to those abroad.

THE NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD EXPEDITION —The Minneapolis (Minn.) Tribune of August 11th, mentions the return of the party which went out under the guidance of P. W. Holmes, agent of Jay Cook & Co, to explore the line and of the Northern Pacific railroad route. Mr. Holmes and party express themselves as highly pleased with much of the country along the route and prepared to go back to the East with a favorable report for the prospects of the great Northern Pacific road. The country is undoubtedly much better and far more favorable than the Union Pacific or the Southern route, and we have every reason to expect that work upon the former will commence at an early day, and that within three years we can go from Minneapolis to the Pacific coast by the Northern Pacific road

THE NEW YORK "TRIBUNE."—Ben Stark,—our Ben Stark—gets the following notice in a New York paper of Sept. 6th. It will be seen that Ben is still flourishing in the glory of his accidental appointment to the United States Senate: "Hon. Benjamin Stark, of Oregon, a Senator of the United States and one of the most influential of Western statesmen was entertained at dinner by Wm Stuart, Esq., at his county seat near New London, on Saturday last. The party included several distinguished politicians, literary men and artists Though Senator Mr Stark is believed to be in favor of Mr Johnson's policy of extending the area of freedom [illegible] the subject of Western statesmen " Good [illegible] We hope the East will not continue to do us the honor.

"PACIFIC NATIONS."—Ben Stark,—our Ben Stark—gets the following notice in a New York paper of Sept. 6th. It will be seen that Ben is still flourishing in the glory of his accidental appointment to the United States Senate: "Hon. Benjamin Stark, of Oregon, a Senator of the United States and one of the most influential of Western statesmen was entertained at dinner by Wm Stuart, Esq., at his county seat near New London, on Saturday last. The party included several distinguished politicians, literary men and artists Though Senator Mr Stark is believed to be in favor of Mr Johnson's policy of extending the area of freedom [illegible] the subject of Western statesmen " Good [illegible] We hope the East will not continue to do us the honor.

THE BASE BALL "TIGER."—We are informed that the Base Ball Club, Saturday evening, it was unanimously decided to challenge the Pioneers to a game of ball to-day, and instructing him to confer with the 'Red Jackets' and, if they have the time on their hands, to invite them to visit Portland Should the invitation be accepted, the Pioneers will at once set about the necessary arrangements for their reception and entertainment. If they come there will be, of course a game and our people will have an opportunity to see a little the tallest playing ever done on Oregon soil Our boys, though not old enough to think they can stand any show to [illegible] against such competitors will nevertheless, [illegible] the best they have in the shop

RAILROAD WORK.—The railroad bridge over the Clackamas will be built immediately above and close to the present bridge over that stream It will thus be built a little below the place first intended. The object is to have a good foundation for the abutments At this point a substantial bridge can be built, and work on it is being pushed briskly forward. Railroad material is now coming to arrive Several hundred kegs of spikes are already landed. The rails brought by the Mercury to San Francisco, are now loading on another vessel for this place Two first class locomotives, from Philadelphia, will arrive by rail in San Francisco in November They are now being laid down at many places along the road.

ROLL OF HONOR—Milwaukie Public School First Class—Wm A Luelling Frank M Iler Albert Lambert, Ella Ross, Hester Merrick

Second Class—Chas Andrew Eddy, Charles Hess Wm. Robertson, Anna M Luelling, Kate Torrence Ellen Luelling.

Third Class—Wm Kellogg Horace Campbell Henry Lambert, Carrie Torrence Rosa Rohler Rosanna Hess

Some of the pupils would undoubtedly have stood on this roll, had they not been prevented by

WM L WORTHINGTON
Teacher

STEAMER —Mr Davis of the firm of Davis & Coggan Brothers of the stage line between Monticello and Olympia, has been in town for two or three days We hear from him that to accommodate the travel by the opposition as well as by the mail boats they have put on an extra line of wagons, so that passengers may go through on any day in the week except Sundays Since the great fires of last summer they have done an immense amount of work on the road but they now have it cleared and in better condition than ever

A STORY DISPUTED —The Register says The Tryon family, at Oswego, say there is no foundation for the report concerning A A Cleveland, first published in the Times of They pronounce it a fabrication of malevolence, done to injure the Spiritualists They say they have received late telegrams from Cleveland—that he is attending to his own business and wishes others would attend to theirs That his relatives in England all bear the name of Cleveland and that Byerly is a different person from Cleveland

A VICTORIA STEAMER —The Colonist says the proposition to buy and maintain a steamship on the route between Victoria and San Francisco has been again revived It is known that the government would give a handsome subsidy for the carriage of the mails Two or three steamships lying idle at San Francisco are mentioned in this connection.

GOING TO SEA.—By the arrival of the Telfair we learn that the Geo S Wright went over the bar on Saturday morning. The schooner Matilda is still in the Columbia river

CAUSES TO BE REMEMBERED.—In the U S. District Court, this morning, an opinion will be rendered in the case of the United States vs steamship Fidelity

ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON —On Friday the mate of the bark Adeline Elwood was arrested upon the complaint of a seaman, charging him with having committed an assault with a deadly weapon upon the high seas On Saturday the case came before Recorder Wilcox U S Commissioner but was continued till to-day

HEAVY RAIN —We had heavy rains during part of yesterday and last night The fall of water was copious enough to flood the streets in places and to show that there are numerous sewer and drains which need attention.

LEE'S CIRCUS —Lee a circus company which was here some weeks ago is reported to have gone to the Sandwich Islands, from Victoria Passage was taken on the Byzantium which was advertised to sail on the 15th

ARRIVAL —The steamer Grace Telfair Sherwood Commander arrived yesterday morning from Victoria with a cargo consisting mostly of coal and lime the latter from Orcas Island

FUNERAL —We are requested to say that the funeral of Miss F E Davis will take place to day (Monday) at 11 o clock from the residence of H. W Davis corner of fourth and Salmon streets

SOCIABLE —The Ladies of the Unitarian Society will hold a Sociable at their church corner of Yamhill and Seventh streets on Thursday evening All are invited to attend

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS —Pursuant to adjournment the County Commissioners will meet to day to examine and correct the assessment roll and to transact some other business.

GONE UP —People in from the country represent the grain stands up out when this rain began is gone and not into bags however It will be a total loss

U S DISTRICT COURT —This Court will hold a session to day pursuant to adjournment

DEMOCRACY IN TROUBLE —We take the following from the Victoria Col ust

The Democratic party in the Pacific States appears to be fearfully exercised over the Chinese question at the present moment The Democrats are indeed inconsistency personified Constituting a large party of a great nation, inscribing upon its banner "All men are born free and equal" they appear determined to give the lie to their national motto According to their creed the negro is only fit to be a slave, and the Asiatic is unfit to enter the United States Up with the Fenian and down with the African and Asiatic! Southern Democracy was wont to look upon all labor as essentially degrading Western Democracy would ennoble labor by degrading two important races—is terribly alarmed least it should be polluted by Mongolian touch As might be expected the editor of the Portland Herald is eagerly devoting himself to the patriotic work of writing down the two despised races In language far from choice he portrays the native American or perhaps it would be more proper to say the Anglo American reduced to starvation and rage all through the Chinese labor When called upon to take up arms in defence of his country "The half-starved devil" says our contemporary "would point to the heathen temples and dens of prostitution, and leper houses and the row of filthy, stinking Chinese dens and would say, these are the pets of the Government, these are the frugal people that support your pampered and rotten wealth call upon them to sustain your honor and your flag Now, all this is very sensational, and may catch a few silly unthinking folk, but surely there are not many who can be misled by such wretched chap trap Democracy holds the Asiatics to be an inferior race They doubtless are greatly inferior to the Anglo American in many respects, and especially are they inferior in that very respect which renders it highly improbable, indeed impossible, that they will ever endanger American institutions, or, least of all, make slaves of Americans, as our contemporary foolishly intimates As we said in a previous article, we do not regard even a very large influx of Chinese as likely to injuriously interfere with white labor, much less enslave it. There is in the United States abundant room for five or six millions of Chinese without interfering with any body There are avenues of labor and productive development in which the proud American scorns to tread, and which, if occupied by the cheaper labor of Asiatics, would add enormously to the national wealth, and instead of cheapening and degrading white, and especially skilled labor would expand and elevate it. In fact, it is difficult to conceive of a more blind, narrow and unAmerican cry than that now being raised against the expected Chinese immigration At a party cry we do not think it is likely to prove very successful Democracy will never ride into the White House upon such a rickety hobby horse as that.

A PEST PRESCRIPTION —Great annoyance is met with in the flower garden from the presence, in multitudinous numbers, of the green fly, the mealy bug, the thrip and kindred insects which infest garden, house and green house plants The editor of the London Floricultural Cabinet offers the following remedy for these pests, which he says he knows from experience, to be effectual.

Dissolve half an ounce of bitter aloes in a gallon of water. With this wash syringe the plants so as to wet them under as well as over the leaves If the enemy be there, he will be destroyed, if he be not there, he will not come. Whether it be the nauseous bitter on the surface, or the smell, or both, we know not but, so far as it has been tried infected plants may be put all ground one so treated, and there will be no sign of thrips, bugs, or aphides, even if the others be covered It is the only thing that destroyed the trip for us, and we believe that while the bitter remains on the surface, nothing living will touch it. We feel great confidence that even snails and slugs will not meddle with it, and all we can say about its effects on caterpillars is that they have not yet attacked a plant so prepared, and that they have committed depredations on plants very close

TO PARENTS —RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION —Dr Eckman has commenced imparting religious instruction to the children of those parents who may be desirous of committing their children under the (almost paternal) care of a man whose truly religious character and simplicity have ever most extraordinarily attuned his mind to that simple childhood and exercised a magnetic power over the juveniles brought within his influence which unregenerate minds can never acquire. The instructions will till the new Synagogue will be conducted by him at the Washington Armory Hall, next building to the Portland Library Till then they will be given on the Sabbath and Holy days after the close of the regular morning service

By order of the President

The use of which has already enjoyed the highest confidence for the excellent quality of his goods, nothing to justify the good name he has won in these Islands, the sale of which daily increases. The superiority of his manufactures, which are always kept up to the standard, has caused a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing attempts on the part of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public purposing upon them their inferior goods, thereby adding to the fortune of HARVEY'S CHARTRES COFF

A-Sharp Letter.

United States District Attorney Pixley has addressed the following very caustic letter to one of the candidates for Supreme Judge on the Democratic ticket in California:

W. T. Wallace: You are a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court of the State of California, and you are doing that which every lawyer thinks of exceeding bad taste—that is, electioneering and stump speaking for yourself. You are further derogating from the dignity of your position by telling stale old electioneering stories, and telling them badly. In addition to this, you are either ignorant of the history of the Court to which you aspire, or else you are wilfully misrepresenting.

You are reported by the San Francisco Chronicle of Tuesday, August 31st, to have used at a public meeting of the Democracy held the evening before at Platt's Hall, the following language:

"Up to the time that Judge Shafter resigned and Crockett was appointed, they (the Supreme Judges) were all Radical, and they did all their business in thorough Radical style. In all cases that came before them in which the title to any office was involved, it was invariably decided against the Democrat; in every case, without exception."

Now this is not true and you certainly knew it when you uttered it, or else, I say you are ignorant of the decisions of the Supreme Court.

At the October term of the Supreme Court, in the year 1864, eight cases were determined, involving the tenure of eight different offices in the county of Tuolumne. The Supreme Bench was Republican, and of its five members Currey, Shafter, Sanders, Sawyer, and Rhodes, four of them awarded these offices to Democrats, Sanderson alone dissenting.

These were the decisions involving the question of the right of soldiers to vote without the county—a question which Republican partisans will very anxious to have sustained, because we thought that citizens abroad fighting for their country were as rightfully entitled to exercise the elective privilege as those who stayed at home intriguing to destroy it.

These cases are found in the 26th volume of California Reports, and are entitled Bourland vs. Hildreth, Gardiner vs Davis, Norwood vs Kenfield, Smith vs Cummings, Dorsey vs Platt, Wainbeer vs York, Birney vs Hurd, McColes vs Keyes. In the case of the People, upon the relation of Henry Carlton, Jr., against John Middleton, Democrats, and others, mandamus was denied, and Henry Carlton, Jr., although a Republican, did not become a Commissioner of the Funded Debt of San Francisco—Justice Sawyer writing the opinion. (Cal. Reports vol. 23, p. 203.) Dewey vs Smith is a case reported in the same volume, page 24. A Democrat was awarded the salary of an office during the whole term, although he had not performed the duties. Sanderson, Chief Justice, rendered the opinion.

Norwood vs. Kenfield is a case from Tuolumne county. Kenfield, a Republican, had been awarded his certificate of election as County Treasurer against Norwood, a Democrat. The judgment was reversed and a new trial ordered, the opinion unanimous—Currey, Sawyer, Rhodes, Shafter and Sanderson still constituting the Radical bench. This decision was rendered in October, 1865.

The case of the people against Provines—34 Cal. R., p. 400—is another in point. Provines, a Democrat, was elected to the office of Judge of the Police Court and ex officio Police Commissioner—a most important position, and one which presented the strongest claims for a partisan decision. The Supreme Court composed than of three Radical Judges and two Democrats, decided that the was entitled to the office.

To charge, therefore, that you have wilfully misrepresented the Supreme Court of this State, and thereby exhibited your unfitness to become a member of it, or else you have demonstrated an ignorance of decisions that equally disqualifies you from being placed in a position where you will be called upon to make them.

You are equally dishonest in your statement that other Judges made political speeches, hence you have a right to do the same. Justice Sanderson did on one occasion make a political speech but he was paraphrased the State stamping for Nisbet. I never heard of a candidate for the Supreme Bench doing it before. [The writer forgets that in the early history of the "high old Democratic party," Judges Murray and Wells occasionally stumped the State.—Ed. Bulletin.] I hope for the honor of our profession it may never be done again. And I also only hope the result of your effort may be your defeat. I am, respectfully, F. M. P.

The Man with three Wives.

Copley, the artist, was elected a Royal Academician, and lived much respected by his brother artists and by the public. Once, and only once, he figured as a party in a case of criminal conversation. A certain citizen of Bristol named Copley, and that himself, his wife, and several children all included in a family piece.

"I want one thing," said the head of the family, "and that is the portrait of my first wife for this one is my second."

"But," said the artist, "she is dead, you know, sir. What can I do? She is only to be admired as an angel."

"Oh, not at all," answered the other, "she must come in as a woman. No angels for me."

The portrait of the first wife was added; but while the picture remained in the studio, the widower advanced with a strange lady on his arm.

"I must have another cast on your hand, Mr. Copley," said he; "an accident befell my second wife. This lady is my third, and she is come to have her likeness included in the family group."

The painter complied, and the husband looked with a glance of satisfaction on his three spouses. Not so the living lady. She remained silent, but afterward called by herself and remonstrated.

"Never was such a thing heard of; it was an aberration that a man should have three wives at once; her character would be gone if she submitted to it; out her predecessors must go.

And she solemnly declared that she had her husband's full authority for the alteration. The artist yielded and immediately sent the picture home, that he might have no further trouble with it. But the enraged tri-gynist, without sending it back, refused to pay for it, and being sued, set up a defense that it was not according to order. The judge before whom the action was tried left to the jury, "whether they did not believe that, under the circumstances, the third wife had the authority of the defendant for directing the ejection of the first and second wife," and the jury covered a verdict for the full amount of the demands.

Not So Bad After All.—Fuller accounts lessen the reported extent of the Harvard defeat on the Thames. Instead of the Oxfords being "three or four lengths" ahead, the referee decided that the Harvards were only half a length behind at the finish. Tom Hughes, whose name is a synonym for all that is fair and manly, thus nearly realized what he declared to be his hearty desire when he accepted the umpireship. Said he with characteristic utterance, to the Americans, "I should be, if I said I hope you will win, but I do hope that at the finish at Barker's Rails your bow will be even with the bow oar of Oxford." As for the race, the impression, which one account of the race gives—that the Harvards broke down when the race was half over, and that the Oxfords in pity didn't try to beat them very much—is now known to be entirely false. The Oxonians confessed immediately after the trial was over that they never had so hard a contest as this in all the races they had run and won. It is admitted on all sides in England that the Harvards lost by defect of steering. The coxswain, an incubus to them, but a necessity to their opponents was the reason of their failure.

The Massachusetts Governorship.—Mr. John Quincy Adams, son of his father, grandson of his grandfather, has nevertheless the wisdom to perceive that what the Democratic party in Massachusetts, as well as throughout the country, needs is an act of oblivion. He wants the record or the party shaken off; wants it understood that Reconstruction and Negro Suffrage are definitely settled; wants to fight the approaching battle in Massachusetts on financial questions and the Liquor Law; and altogether shows how admirably he could get along if people would only remember and forget in accordance with his directions. Of course the young man was nominated again for Governor of Massachusetts. That, we believe, is the regular performance. It is noticeable, however, that the platform on which he is pinned begins by slapping him in the face. It announces that the Democratic party of Massachusetts have no new theories to advance. The people will take them at their word, and hold Mr. John Quincy Adams, son, grandson, and great grandson aforesaid, to the test on the old theories concerning which the party has been brought to judgment many a time before.

VARIETIES.

The Boston papers speak of the "Rev. Robert Colyer, of Chicago." Probably they thus mutilate his name on the pretence that even a single ell is more than he himself believes in.

The Nashville Banner, a rebel sheet, says that Andrew Johnson owes to Tennessee all that he is. That relieves the rest of the country of a large amount of disgrace. Andy, however, ought to be very angry at Tennessee when he stops to thinks what he is.

A business firm in Fair Haven, Conn., have posted the following "notice" on the front of their iron safe: "All gentlemanly burglars are hereby notified that owing to the insecurity of this box no valuables are deposited therein, so please not disturb it."

The Philadelphia Post frets terribly over the west of the Missouri river as the man who made rapid depopulation of Pennsylvania, and calls for the abolition of capital punishment at the same time. There is probably a line of connection between the two facts.

The San Francisco Bulletin says that Anna Cora Mowatt Ritchie is given to extravagant flights of fancy in her letters to another San Francisco paper. To which the Detroit Tribune replies that if such a fault exists, the Bulletin must not forget that Riches have wings.

A sermon was once preached from a text which the preacher found in Job, which runs as follows: "Though after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh I shall see God." This he divided into three parts, as follows: "First, skin worms; second, what they done; third, what the man seen after he was eat up."

A droll answer is said to have been given lately in an examination at Cambridge. The candidate being asked who Wycklife was, and having doubtless heard him called the morning star of the Reformation, and that he died Vicar of Lutterworth, answered that the great Reformer "was for some time editor of the Morning Star, and died Vicar of Wakefield."

They have a queer law in Delaware. It requires a man, before lending a woman to the matrimonial altar, to give bonds for good behavior. The unlucky swain who may have more love than credit may cast about in an agony of suspense, waiting for some enterprising individual in the sum of two hundred dollars, lawful money, and be compelled, in default of this conjugal straw bail, to forego all the sweets of the honeymoon. A vigorous effort is being made to have the law repealed.

In brief, France is very tired of Napoleon, but has not the concentration of purpose to push him from them. Therefore, he sits there still, while everybody wishes he would die. Perhaps he may. Threatened men live long. "A watched pot never boils," says the homely adage. But this man has given unmistakable signs of the failure of that vigor of mind and character which once won him power. His irresolution and inability to handle the reins he once grasped so firmly, can no longer be concealed. Friends begin to dread his blunders, and foes to laugh at his indecisive fumbling of affairs. He is a broken man in mind assuredly, and in men of his stamp the mind alone keeps alive a body worn out by excesses. It will not be very strange, then, if after several despatches, most positively assuring us that "the Emperor is in no danger," "the Emperor is fully recovered," we should one day read, "the Emperor is dead."—St. Louis Democrat.

Gen. J. L. Alcorn, who is likely to be the Republican candidate for the Mississippi Governorship, made a speech at Hernando the other day. Several hundred negroes were present, and a Democrat endeavored to embarrass the speaker by asking him, in the presence of his black audience, if Mrs. Alcorn had ever entertained negroes in her parlor. The General dexterously evaded the thrust by this reply: "Mrs. Alcorn is a lady of culture and education, and belongs to one of the oldest and most respectable families in Mississippi. Previous to the war her father was possessed of over five hundred negroes, and she occupied a leading position in the community in the State. In fact, I may say, that in point of position in society, Mrs. Alcorn stood much higher than I did when we were married. With this explanation, I can assure you that, not to speak of negroes, it is not every white man that can gain admittance to my wife's parlor."

No Contempt.—The New York Tribune tells the following story:

"While Thad. Stevens was a young lawyer, he once had a case before a bad-tempered Judge of an obscure Pennsylvania Court. Under what he considered a very erroneous ruling, it was decided against him; whereupon he threw down his books and picked up his hat in high indignation and was about to leave the court room, scattering imprecations around him. The Judge straightened himself to his full height, assumed an air of offended majesty, and asked: Thad. if he meant to "express his contempt for this Court." Thad. turned to him very deferentially, made a respectful bow, and replied, in feigned amusement, "Express my contempt for this Court! No, sir! I am trying to conceal it, your Honor," he added, as he turned to leave, "but I find it d—d hard to do it."

The Sacramento Record growls about State Fair management. [1] The roads are not sprinkled; [2] people who hitch horses are charged two bits therefor by darkeys whose only function appears to be to collect it. [3] Drinks are charged two bits. The latter previous imposition is denounced with honest bitterness.

WEST OF THE CASCADES.

OLYMPIA, W. T., May 24, 1869.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY solicit subscriptions to enable them to publish a MAP OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY West of the Cascades, compiled from the United States Surveys and the best and latest authorities. The scale is four miles to an inch, making the map sixty seven by fifty one inches. In addition to the topography of the country, the map shows the extent of the Surveys, the Indian and Government Reserves, the Prairie lands, the soundings of the principal harbors, and many other particulars not given in previous maps. The Subscription Price is Ten Dollars. RETAIL PRICE, TWELVE DOLLARS. The map will be furnished, colored, mounted and complete, by August. It was forwarded in March to the establishment of Sutton & Co., New York, for publication.

Subscriptions may be forwarded to Joseph Cushman, Receiver Land Office, Olympia; W. C. Painter, Walla Walla; A. G. Cook, Vancouver; R. J. McCormick, Portland, who will receipt.

We call attention to the following endorsements.

HAZARD STEVENS,
CHAS. A. WHITE.

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map much critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical Surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.
